

Hennessy/Hill Breakfast to Honor Air Force's, Marine Corps' Finest

The Air Force and Marine Corps will formally recognize the winners of their John L. Hennessy Awards and General W.P.T. Hill Memorial Awards, which acknowledge the hard work and culinary skill of each service's foodservice professionals, during its Hennessy/Hill Awards Breakfast Ceremony, to be held in conjunction with the National Restaurant Association (NRA) Hotel-Motel Show.

The ceremony will take place on May 17, 2008, from 8 to 10 a.m. at the Sheraton Chicago, and will be the first in which the Marine Corps will join the Air Force in recognizing the winners of its foodservice awards. Previously, the Marine Corps celebrated the Hill awards along with the Army, Navy, Coast Guard and Military Sealift Command (MSC) at the annual International Food Service Executives Association (IFSEA) conference.

Following are the winners of the 2008 Hennessy and Hill Awards:

HTA Award of Excellence

The Hennessy Travelers Association (HTA) award of excellence is determined each year by Hennessy evaluators on both the single and multiple teams. Each team selects an Air Force military food service person who exemplifies the highest standards of professionalism, attitude and culinary skill as the recipient of the award of excellence.

HTA nominees for the single-facility category are: Airman 1st Class Megan Milam, Langley AFB, Va.; Airman 1st Class Grant Carter, Travis AFB, Calif.; Airman 1st Class Claribel Najera-Torres, Tyndall AFB, Fla.; and Airman 1st Class Amir Utsey, Yokota AB, Japan.

HTA nominees for the multiple-facility category are Airman 1st Class Lydia Paige, Eglin AFB, Fla.; Staff Sgt. Janice Ladd, USAF, Hurlburt Field, Fla.; Airman Devin Wigley, Osan AB, Korea; and Airman 1st Class Fanchon Shanette Ivey, RAF Mildenhall, U.K. The winners will be announced at the Hennessy Awards Breakfast Ceremony.
